

CATHOLIC FAITH FORMATION

Certificate Program in Marriage and Family, Parts I & II

For Teachers and Mentors
of Engaged Couples

Part I (CFF 206/Spring 2009/2units) explores marriage and family in light of the philosophy and theology engendered by Vatican II.

We'll study and discuss the Theology of the Body, Humanae Vitae, works by Edith Stein, Dietrich von Hildebrand, Janet Smith, and others.

Part II (CFF 207/Fall 2009/2 units) seeks to answer the question, "Is the Catholic vision of marriage and family livable?"

We'll look at the essential components of marriage preparation—communication, finances, human sexuality, married love—and develop an effective presentation on conjugal love and NFP.
